

Looking to become a CIO, plan for succession or develop your team?

Get on the fast track with a program specially designed by the CIO experts at Gartner.

ACADEMY FOR LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

22 – 23 September 2009

Sofitel Hotel—London, Heathrow

Open to:

- Aspiring CIOs or IT executive leaders (from IT or the business)
- CIO direct reports
- CIO named successor(s)
- CIO Signature member delegates

(continued on back)

Prepare for the next level of your professional career with highly interactive sessions and workshops facilitated by Gartner experts who work with CIOs every day and research CIO best practices.

- Acquire new skills and insights—develop a personal value proposition and embrace necessary changes in behavior and focus.
- Expand beyond your operational responsibilities.
- Improve your value as a strategic thinker and executer—enhance your visibility and credibility.
- Gain a new understanding of the broader issues driving the evolution of the CIO role.
- Build your peer network and learn from peer successes.

£2,500 + VAT Academy tuition* includes:

- Classroom sessions/workshops
- Program materials/documentation
- Meals

Special discounted hotel rate: £149 + VAT per night at the Sofitel Hotel—London, Heathrow.

*If you are a Gartner for Leadership Development member, tuition for this academy is included with your membership. For non-members, the tuition fee is applicable toward your Gartner for Leadership Development annual membership if you join by November 30, 2009. Gartner for Leadership Development is a comprehensive development program that will prepare you to become an effective CIO and help you excel in your current position.

For more information and to register, visit gartner.com/cioacademy or e-mail zuzana.blackburn@gartner.com.