

This is the table of contents from a new report for 2005, "Business Intelligence: Best Practices for Achieving a High-Performance Organization." To order or to learn more about the Gartner Strategic Planning Series, go to www.gartnerpress.com/reports.

Business Intelligence: Best Practices for Achieving a High-Performance Organization

Table of Contents

- 1.0 Introduction and Executive Overview
- 2.0 The Outlook for Business Intelligence and Data Warehousing
- 3.0 Corporate Performance Management:
Information Drivers for Successful Enterprises
- 4.0 BI Infrastructure: The Foundation for Success
- 5.0 How to Deploy ERP Data Warehouses
- 6.0 CRM Analytics: Realizing Your Potential
- 7.0 Selecting BI and Data Warehousing Tools: A Blueprint for Success
- 8.0 Data Quality: Understanding the Business Impact and Best Practices
- 9.0 Business Activity Monitoring: A 'Real World' View
- 10.0 Governance and Corporate Performance Management
- 11.0 The Myths of Metrics
- 12.0 Taking BI to the Next Level: Data Mining and Predictive Analytics
- 13.0 The Cornerstones of BI: Payback and Risks
- 14.0 Using Web Analytics to Optimize Web Site Return on Investment
- 15.0 Negotiating With BI Software Vendors and Service Providers
- 16.0 The Five 'Fatal Flaws' of BI
- 17.0 Organizing and Managing Data for Strategic BI
- 18.0 The Compliance and Corporate Governance Scenario
- 19.0 Business Intelligence Market Dynamics
- 20.0 BI Usage Patterns: How Do You Stack Up?
- Appendix A Business Intelligence and Data Warehousing Case Studies

Appendix B Gartner's Business Intelligence Magic Quadrants

Appendix C Glossary

Vendor Index