More than 50% of workers will search corporate info using software that has been given a name and a personality.

More than 20% of enterprise social software postings will lack any text.

The most transformational digital workplace productivity technologies will be available only from the cloud.

50% of team coordination and communication will occur via mobile group collaboration apps.

20% of organizations will include employee engagement improvement as a shared performance objective for HR and IT.

Workplace Reimagined: Agile, Engaged, Empowered

Learn more: gartner.com/eu/workplace