

Gartner PPM & IT Governance Summit 2016

June 6 – 8 | Orlando, FL | gartner.com/us/ppm

Key take-aways

1

“In a disruptive, changing environment, it’s crucial to have a solid strategy execution compass to succeed.”

Jeroen De Flander
Guest Keynote Speaker

2

“Most who succeed with project portfolio management emphasize people issues first.”

Robert A. Handler
Gartner Research Analyst

3

“To demonstrate success, it’s ... important to ensure that the benefits anticipated from a project or investment are ... understood and easy to track by business sponsors and stakeholders.”

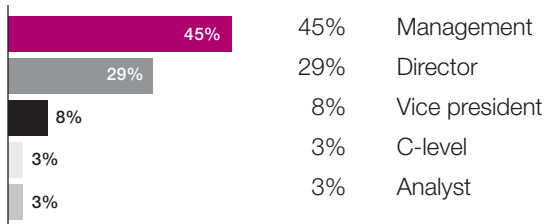

Lars Mieritz
Gartner Research Analyst

4

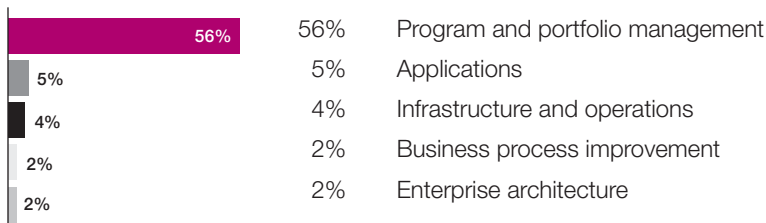

“The top drivers for business transformation are delivering a great customer experience, becoming a digital business, and meeting constantly changing regulatory requirements.”

Janelle B. Hill
Gartner Research Analyst

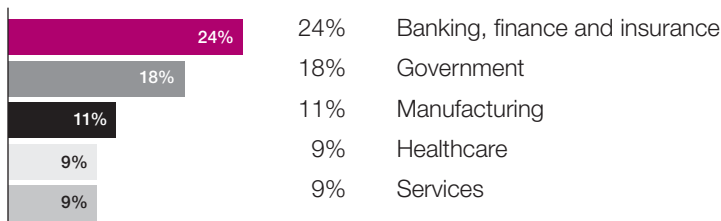

Top 5 job titles

Top 5 job roles

Top 5 industries

Most-attended sessions

- A3. The Secrets of Prioritizing IT Demand
- D6. KPIs and Metrics for Communicating PPM Success and Effectiveness
- D2. To the Point: Getting to Grips With KPIs and Metrics That Focus on Business Outcomes
- B2. To the Point: Best Practices for an Effective PMO
- A8. Aligning Project Portfolios to Strategic Objectives to Drive Business Value

“At the Gartner PPM Summit 2016, I was able to see the future of PMOs and what areas I should be working on in the coming years in order to be of value to my company.”

Anabel Lay, Assistant Vice President,
Banco General

The 2017 date is set!

Gartner PPM & IT Governance Summit 2017

June 5 – 7 | Gaylord Palms, Orlando, FL | gartner.com/us/ppm